

The Chad Daniell Memorial Hockey Scholarship

In March 2005, Chad Daniell, a friend and former hockey player for MHA, died at the age of 16. In just 16 years, Chad left footprints on the hearts of everyone he met with his love of family, faith in God, academic excellence, athletic ability, and kindness. In celebration of his life, Dan and Stacy Daniell, and Chad's brother, Cole established the Chad Daniell Memorial Scholarship. Through funds raised in our annual Cold War game with Martin High School, the Mansfield Hockey Association is able to continue to offer this scholarship to our MHA graduating seniors

This annual scholarship award provides financial assistance to a Mansfield hockey player who is a graduating senior from MISD with plans to go to college. Eligible applicants are evaluated on the basis of character, academic performance, leadership, and community service. The Mansfield Hockey Association will award $1000 to the winning recipient of this year's scholarship. In addition, the Mansfield Hockey Association will award additional $500 scholarships to deserving applicants.

To apply for the Chad Daniell Memorial Hockey Scholarship, please submit the following items to:
